

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

The actions of corporations like Clear Channel Corporations have ruined diversity in media programming, while monopolizing the entire radio and television market. We should be protecting independent media outlets, not opening them up to bullying tactics by mega corporations.